“But all who humble themselves before the Lord shall be given every blessing, and shall have wonderful peace.” Psalm 37:11

Lord, please teach me to humble myself. Let all my actions and reactions rise from an attitude of humility today. Let my words and expressions communicate humility. And as I humble myself, thank you that you will fill and surround me with your blessing and your wonderful peace.

“But when I am afraid, I will put my confidence in you. Yes, I will trust the promises of God.” Psalm 56:3-4

Lord, how often I forget to trust in your promises! Please help me today to put my confidence in you. When I am afraid, remind me to put my confidence in you. When I am uncertain, help me put my confidence in you. When I am grieving, help me trust in your promises. When I feel isolated and alone, remind me that I am never alone. Thank you.

“The Lord speaks. The enemy flees.” Psalm 68:11

Lord, I have nothing to be afraid of today because when you speak, the enemy flees! Nothing and no one can stand against you. I am so grateful that the schemes of the enemy fall apart when they come face to face with you. Thank you for being my defender and protector. Help me to trust in your power and majesty today.

“Turn us again to yourself, O God of the armies of heaven. Look down on us, your face aglow with joy and love – only then shall we be saved.” Psalm 80:19
